

Welcome to the new British Airways service between London and Santiago, Chile.

British Airways is excited to announce a brand new direct service between London and Santiago de Chile. The new route is launching 3 January 2017, with four weekly flights on board our latest Boeing 787-9 aircraft. As well as offering a wealth of exciting things to see and do, Santiago is a convenient gateway from which customers can discover other areas of this thrilling and colourful country.

Santiago, Chile

As the capital and economic centre of Chile, Santiago is a lively and vibrant city and its mild winters and very warm summers make it an ideal year-round destination. There is a wealth of things to see and do, including museums, theatres, restaurants, bars and events throughout the year. Must-sees include the Parque Metropolitano, the Cerro San Cristobal, which provides breath-taking views of the city, the Plaza De Armas, Catedral Metropolitana and the Mercado Central, the city's bustling central market.

Santiago is an excellent gateway from which to discover the rest of the country. With its close proximity to the Andes mountains, as well as coasts of the Pacific Ocean, it's an ideal destination for skiers and sun worshipers alike. Mountain climbing, hiking and bike tours are available for sports enthusiasts, with cooking classes and wine tasting tours making for a more relaxed break. And those looking to explore even further can travel onward to Easter Island.

London, the UK and Europe

Those visiting London from Chile will discover an iconic city packed with an eclectic mix of museums, galleries, shops, theatres, markets and nightspots. From royal landmarks such as Buckingham Palace and the Tower of London to the shopping hubs of Oxford Street and Notting Hill; captivating museums such as the Natural History Museum to glittering West End shows, there's something for everyone.

London is also a convenient gateway from which to explore further afield in the UK. Discover Devon's picturesque coastal towns, the breath-taking landscape of the Peak District or Manchester's lively nightlife.

And if you're looking to venture even further, British Airways flights connect from London to over 100 destinations in Europe, including Athens, Berlin, Corfu, Ibiza, Nice, Paris, Rome, Sardinia and many more.

Discover our new aircraft, the Boeing 787-9 Dreamliner

Our latest aircraft, the Boeing 787-9, will serve the route. Customers can choose from four comfortable cabins on board: First, Club World, World Traveller Plus and World Traveller. As with all our Boeing 787s, they will enjoy state-of-the-art features designed to ensure they arrive at their destination feeling relaxed and refreshed, including purer cabin air and soothing mood lighting. What makes the Boeing 787-9 special is the even more luxurious First cabin, which includes enhanced in-flight entertainment and even better storage.
